DIRECTOR NOTES

Hold on to your magic carpet; we're in for a very fun ride! Whether it's pushing to reach your goals, living with integrity, valuing companionship, or believing in who you are – there is so much to learn from Disney's Aladdin. These students have worked on all of these things and more to bring you this production today. So first, thank you to every student for giving me the best group of kids to work with. Thank you to every parent who allowed your student to be part of this group; and for giving extra time and resources behind the scenes. A special thank you to Karalee & Tom Norris for stepping in and taking the lead on designing & coordinating the painting of our beautiful set. Last but not least, to the most dedicated production team - Jeremy, Deanna, Andrea, and Sara – always know that I'll never have friends like you. Thank you for everything you've done to make this production a success.

Enjoy the show!
